Kick off the Holidays with “An Evening in December”
*Opens December 2 at First Covenant Church of Sacramento

Sacramento, CA, Nov. 5, 2009 — Are you looking for a Christmas show that the whole family will enjoy? Bring them to “An Evening in December,” a Christmas musical spectacular presented at First Covenant Church of Sacramento from December 2-6, 2009.

“As we celebrate our 18th anniversary, we’re excited to once again present ‘An Evening in December’ to the community,” said John Plastow, the show’s writer and producer. “The show is a wonderful way to start the holiday season. We enjoy helping people get in the holiday spirit by reminding them of the hope and joy of Christmas.”

“An Evening in December” features new and traditional Christmas music performed by a cast of singers, actors and dancers. This year’s production has something for everyone, including:

- A holiday storyline sure to please the entire family
- Pre-show festivities featuring Santa and Mrs. Claus
- Lavish Christmas decorations, including thousands of lights in the First Covenant plaza

“An Evening in December” will be performed on the following dates and times:

Wednesday, December 2	7 p.m.
Thursday, December 3	7 p.m.
Friday, December 4	7 p.m.
Saturday, December 5	3 p.m. and 7 p.m.
Sunday, December 6	3 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Tickets are only $9, and are available through the First Covenant Ticket Line at (916) 861-1626.

First Covenant Church of Sacramento is located at 10933 Progress Court in Rancho Cordova, on Highway 50 just west of Sunrise Blvd. For directions to the church, visit www.firstcov.org.

Bring your family and friends to this year’s “An Evening in December,” a Sacramento Christmas tradition you won’t want to miss. Visit www.aneveningindecember.com for more information.
